Cities of Peace is a series of nine 6 x 8 foot gold-illuminated works on canvas consisting of a visual tribute to the people and locations around the world where violence and tragedy through war or conflict and ideological extremism in modern times have left horrific reminders of man’s destructive power. The Cities of Peace project and exhibition was started as an ambitious idea to unite people and the visual arts through dialogue about issues of peace.

10:15 – 12:25	Student Research Sessions	Moyer Hall
12:30 – 1:00	Lunch	Miller Forum
1:00 – 3:30	Student Research Sessions	Moyer Hall

SRSJ is raising awareness and collecting funds for the Urban Arts Center of the Lehigh Valley, a community based center in Allentown, PA, that engages youth in music and dance programs and performances.

Collections will be gratefully accepted April 7-8, 2011.

The SRSJ Conference is made possible through generous support from the Lehigh Valley Association of Independent Colleges, The Department of Media & Communication at Muhlenberg College, Dean of the College for Academic Life, Muhlenberg College and RJ Fellows Program, Muhlenberg College.
